

Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, Feb'y 16, 1859.
THURSDAY.—We shall offer the student Council, for two hours.

Business.—The Southerner had ten days before his maturity of the ordinary kind.

The following is the note for Major-General in McNair's name: Cross 640, Books 100, South-Jones.

Business.—Present meetings are held nights in Avery Court; the proceedings of a highly interesting character.

Business.—Major-Miles, who was removed by Philpot, was apparently no worse yesterday, but his medical attendant had no news of his recovery.

Stallions.—One King was examined yesterday before "Squire" Morgan, the shoemaker, at 200 Main street, to whom the horse was given. It was in a state of great distress, and was sent to the stable of Dr. Morgan's son, in about a week.

New Business.—Foster, the experienced barter, has opened a new shop on Jefferson street, at the old stand, east of the Continental Hotel, on the corner of Main and Madison streets, and now asks public attention.

Real Estate.—Street Commissioners Miller and his wife, were yesterday employed in laying a new paving in the Royal street bridge, a much wanted improvement.

Business.—Mr. Kenney got off the bar yesterday, and will now receive attention.

Mr. T. W. Neal.—The President was in town yesterday, he is stopping at the Commercial Hotel for a day or two, and will receive advertisements during his stay, in the evening.
